FRANCE IS SHORT ON TELEPHONES

One Phone to 200 Population, Rates "Over There" are Double What They are in the States

City of 20,000 With no Daily Newspaper, --- Also Shortage on Bathing Facilities in Some Cities

In a letter to Giles P. O'Brien, "Andy" Gleriet now in France, writes of telephone development in France there. Mr. Gleriet at Brainerd was local manager of the Northwestern Telephone Exchange.

He said in part that the low rate of telephone development in France is more than astonishing, it is startling. He found about one telephone in every 200 of population. Comparing this with the development in the states, one finds in the U. S. A. that phones run better than one to ten.

"Furthermore and not considering the purchasing value or power of a dollar, rates in France are more than double in the state. And again the service furnished is greatly inferior and decidedly restricted as compared with Bell service. This could be used as an argument against governmental ownership, but it is not in my opinion the true reason," said Mr. Gleriet.

"Could you imagine a city in the states of over 30,000 population without a daily newspaper? Recently I had occasion to visit a city of that population and it didn't even have a bi-monthly sheet.

"There is also a shortage on baths in towns. Can you imagine a city in the states of over 20,000 souls where the demand for bathing facilities was such that the one bath house was closed certain days?" said Mr. Gleriet.

Doors of Hell Seem to be Open Demons Fly Air

BY FRED S. FERGUSON,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the Americans in Picardy, May 13—In Picardy the doors of hell seem literally to be open, screaming demons fly the air and guns roar until they fairly jar the earth, combining the deafening sound, the gun flare and bursting shell roar seems like a great fire sweeping and rolling over the field.

With the setting of the sun nightly rest ceases and ammunition wagons start for the front and patrols creep across no man's land. The apple trees are blossoming and the lilacs and daisies blooming. The nightingale's start singing but the thundering war song drowns the songs of the birds. Houses rock as the American "heavies" start, each shell sounding like an express train leaving a railway station, but such death dealing trains stop only at German stations.

The Americans demolished two additional buildings at Cantigny last night and a similar bombardment starts at dusk every evening continuing until midnight. The Americans continue repulsing the enemy raids.

BRAINERD GAME

Described in Detail, How the Runs Were Made by the Contestants

Brainerd lost out in its battle at Ironton, the score being 4 to 5 and it took ten innings to decide it. Cold weather interfered with the playing of Brainerd in the early stages.

No Steam in Grand Stand.

The grand stand, not being steam-heated, harbored 15 individuals of the hero class. The bleachers were filled, for some sunshine streamed over there. Brainerd had a fleet of cars present almost as many as the range brought out.

Leneau Pitched Well

Leneau of Brainerd pitched a good game and if his support had been equally good, the long end of the score would have gone to Brainerd. As it was, errors yielded Ironton its first batch of runs in the first inning.

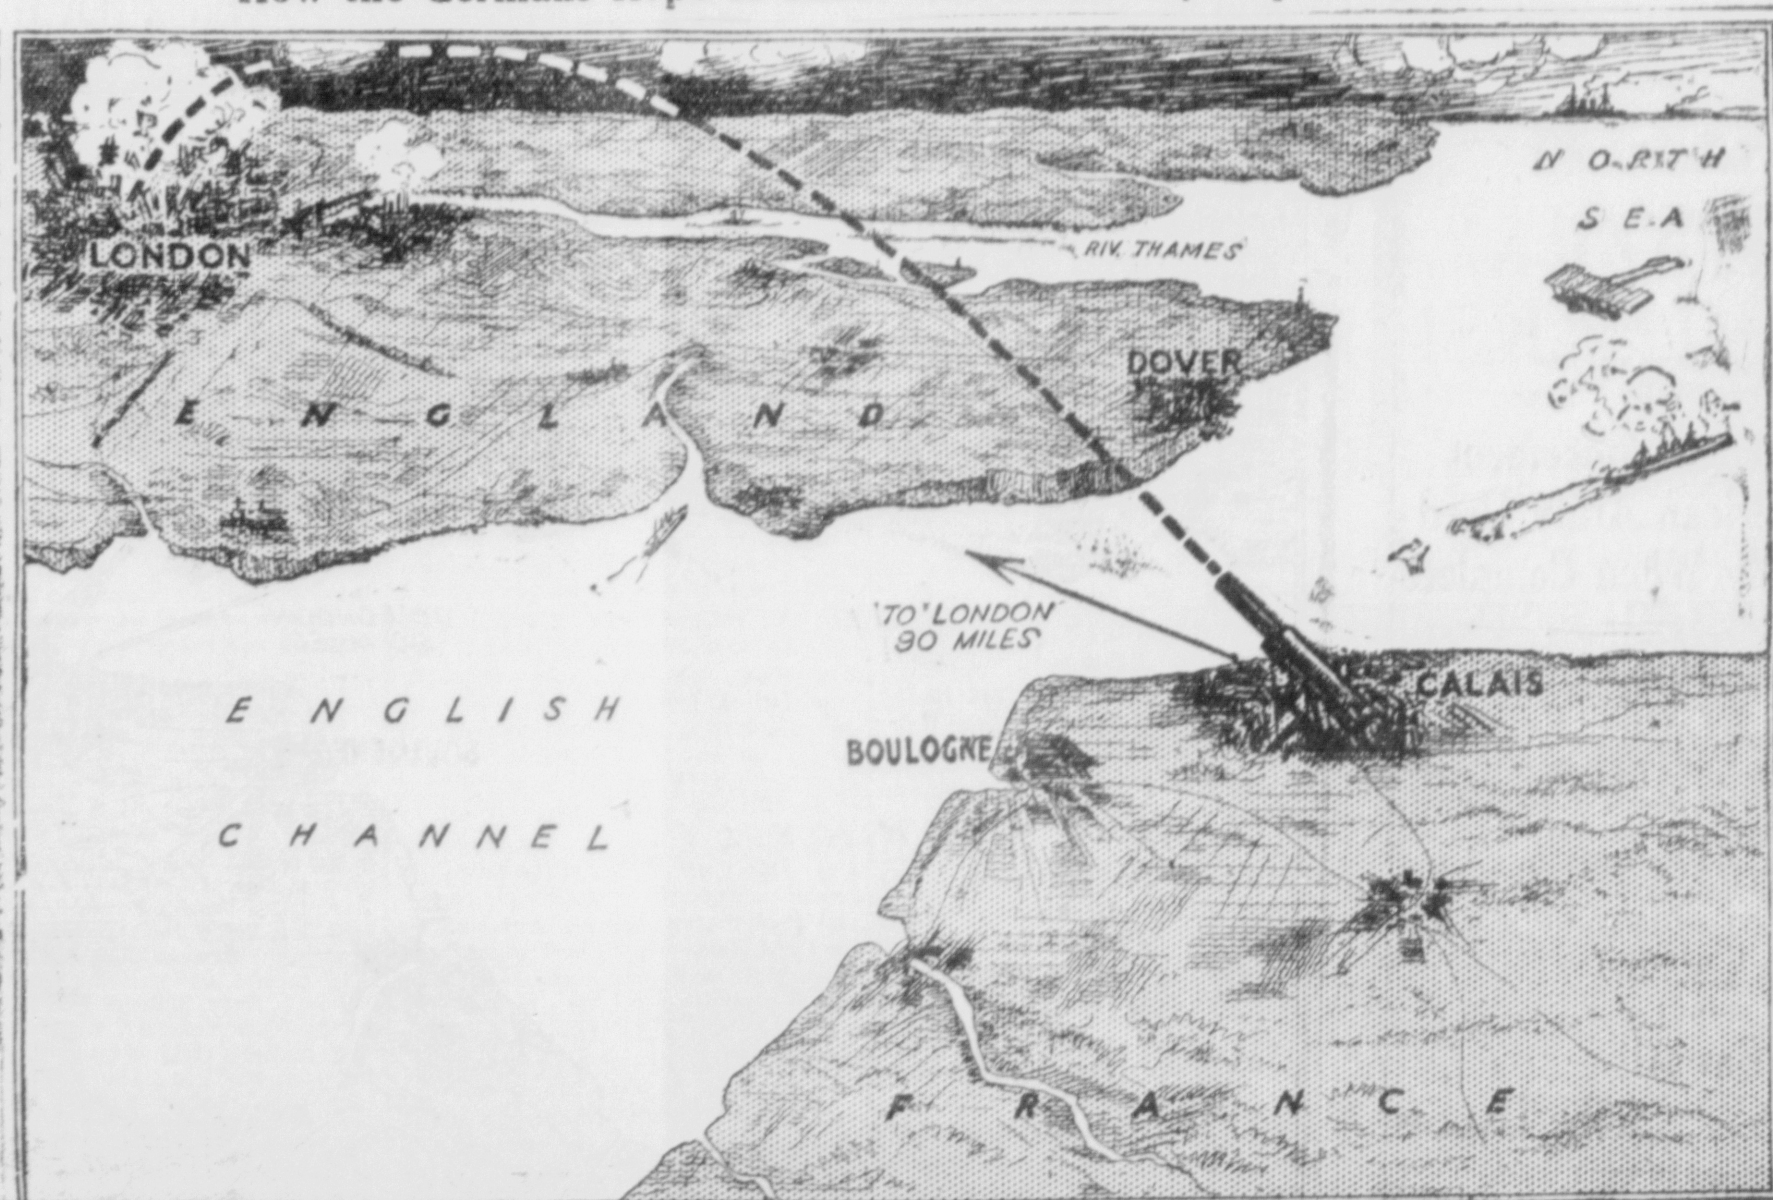

The hard grounds were unfamiliar to Brainerd, which arrived on the scene with but little preliminary practice. The Brainerd diamond, on the other hand, is of the soft, yielding kind and treats a ball differently when batted down the line. It took the team about so long to get accustomed to the diamond.

MEMORIAL DAY IS PROCLAIMED

President Sets May 30 For Public Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer.

WANTS SPEEDY PEACE

Protestant Churches Will Prepare
Common Service Program and Catholic Churches Will Issue
Message to Parishioners.

Washington, May 13.—President
Wilson designates Thursday, May 23, as Memorial day in a proclamation issued as a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting.

The people of the nation are asked to gather in that day in their places of worship and pray for the victory of the American arms which will bring a peace founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

The proclamation, issued in response to a resolution by Congress, follows:

"By the President of the United States,
A Proclamation.

"Whereas, the Congress of the United States on the second day of April last, passed the following resolution:
"Resolved, by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring) that it being a duty peculiarly incumbent in a time of war humbly and devoutly to acknowledge our dependence on Almighty God and to implore
His aid and protection, the President of the United States be and he is hereby respectfully requested to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity and the offer of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause, His blessings on our arms and a speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the nations of the earth."

"And whereas, it has always been the reverent habit of the people of the United States to turn in humble appeal to Almighty God for his guidance in the affairs of their common life,

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson,
President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the thirtieth day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, and do exhort my fellow citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their places of worship and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things just and right, and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with His will, beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost support of what is just and true, bringing us at last the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

RECIPES USING
BARLEY FLOUR

County Food Administrator Andrew E. Berglund of Brainerd, has been given two recipes using barley flour which are exceptionally good as the barley bread and barley cake was also brought in for sampling. Here are the recipes as furnished by two Pequot ladies:

Bread, using potatoes and barley flour. Grate ten medium size raw potatoes, pour over them one (1) quart of boiling water to scald; when this has cooled, add two (2) table-spoons of sugar and yeast cake. Mix stiff enough for sponge with white flour. Let raise over night. In the morning add salt and a little shortening, and mix stiff with equal parts of barley flour and white flour. Must be a little stiffer than for white bread. Let raise, knead down once and when it raises again put into pans and let raise once more. Bake 3-4 of an hour to an hour. This will make five (5) good size loaves.

ANNA BROICH,
Pequot, Minn.

Barley flour cake:
1½ cups sour milk
2 Eggs
2-3 Cup sugar
½ cup of sugar (corn)
½ cup butter substitute and lard compound
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2-3 teaspoon nutmeg, pinch salt
1 cup seedless raisins
1 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
Barley flour enough to mix quite stiff.

CONSERVATION OF MEAT CALL

The following telegram will interest Crow Wing county people as it does not re-establish meatless calls again for conservation of meat, days or meals, but makes it plain that we must use less than normal:

"The Food Administration is very desirous of securing economy in the consumption of all kinds of meat without reinstating meatless days for the present. Seasonal decline in the volume of animal products is now in progress and volume will be further decreased during the next few months as is usual, but probably the amount of such decrease is yet obscure.

"The necessity for shipments abroad to our army and the allies is pounds of meat and meat products very large and roughly 75,000,000 pounds of meat and meat products of all kinds per week against pre-war normal outlet of 15,000,000. Even with this large shipment, the allies find it necessary to reduce consumption of all kinds of meat to an average of about 1¼ pounds per week per person, in order that no further draft should be made upon shipping facilities that are now required for soldiers.

"Our consumption of meat is now about 3¼ pounds per week per person if we are to make both ends balance for the short marketing season, we must have further economy. If the people will continue rigorous elimination of waste and will further economize by reducing quantities prepared for each meal of all kinds of meat and poultry, most particularly beef, and will restrict their purchases accordingly, the Food Administration hopes that the necessary balance can be maintained, and will avoid the inconvenience which arises in many directions from meatless days, and will cause less interference in the daily preparation of food.

"There is now a seasonal abundance of milk products which can be substituted in many forms. The shortage of fish during the past several months, due to the necessity of naval requisitions of trawlers, and enlistment of fishermen for the navy should be considerably relieved by the expansion in other forms of fishing. Signed, Hoover."

LOCAL HOUSEWIVES AND USE OF THE POTATO

"The 'Irishman's apple,' otherwise the humble potato, has found a loyal friend in the Woman's Auxiliary of the Council of Defense, Brainerd unit, and an intelligent campaign of publicity is to be inaugurated under the supervision of Miss Grace Moreland, chairman of the publicity committee.

To bring home to the practical housewives of this city the importance of the potato as a food conservation dish and to emphasize the necessity of its use as a food commodity is the purpose of Miss Moreland's proposed campaign and from time to time, practical recipes for the use of the potato will be published in local papers under a department head. The careful consideration of this column is earnestly urged by Miss Moreland and her assistants.

Today's Suggestion.
Do you know that the potato IS GOOD FUEL?

It furnishes starch which burns in your muscles to let you work, much as the gasoline burns in an automobile engine to make the car go.

SAVES BREAD?
One medium-sized potato gives you as much starch as two slices of bread. Thus you see potatoes save wheat.

GIVE YOU SALTS?
The potato gives you salts like other vegetables. You need the salts to build and renew all the parts of your body and to keep it in order.

THEY ARE PLENTIFUL!
Potatoes are plentiful, can be purchased at a nominal price and are within the reach of all.

These are good reasons, from a standpoint of health and economy, why we should use more potatoes.

Watch this column for practical recipes and suggestions relating to the use of potatoes and then co-operate with the department in the use of double the amount we are now using. It will be profitable to us and help win the war.

in THE
DANGER GAME
GOLDWYN PICTURES

Madge Kennedy at the Best Today

A melodramatic Madge Kennedy is the big surprise in store for the legions of admirers of the Goldwyn star when she appears in her newest and most startling photo play, "The Danger Game," by Roy Somerville, at the Best theatre today.

Bereft of her bridal veil and orange blossoms, Madge Kennedy is seen in a series of amazing situations totally unlike any she has yet had to face in the comedy-dramas which brought her into fame and caused her to be acclaimed "the find of the season." No longer is she the girl who gets herself into scrapes, then depends on her eyes and her smile to extricate her. Always Madge Kennedy's errors on the screen have been social ones, calculated to shock circumspect dowagers and not the public in general.

Much more serious are her troubles in "The Danger Game," for she becomes a desperate, hunted little creature known not to the society photographers, but the police; recognized not by frequenters of the opera, but by hardened crooks by whom she is accepted willingly because of her supposed facility in safe cracking. This is the new Madge Kennedy, and her character of Clytie Rogers is assuredly a novel one for the erstwhile little wife to essay.

Theda Bara at the Best Tomorrow

Lovers of motion pictures which interest and enthrall will welcome the glad news that Theda Bara is to appear at the Best theatre in her newest William Fox production "The Rose of Blood."

Mis Bara portrays a Russian heroine. But Liiza Tapenka is different from every other leading lady of Slavonic origin. She is a Russian who fights, made of the same stuff which has formed the brave Legion of Death.

Liiza allies herself with a band of revolutionists who are seeking the freedom of the empire. She is successful in assassinating several persons whose acts of oppression have made the lot of the people more miserable. She signifies the completion of her deeds by dropping a blood-colored rose on the body of each victim.

Finally her band demand the death of her own husband. He is the Prime Minister, and his hand bears more heavily than that of any other. She had married him in his younger days, before he rose to so prominent a place.

Fighting between her love for him and her desire to free the downtrodden people, Liiza finally succumbs to the right. She blows up a building which houses the Premier and all of his cabinet.

She has struck the first real blow for freedom! But she has left herself alone in the world.

The story of this gripping picture was written by Richard Ordynski, stage director of the Metropolitan opera house in New York. Mr. Ordynski, who himself acts the role of the leading revolutionist in the film, was born in Poland and lived there for many years. He personally supervised the details of the production and insured the accuracy of every setting and incident.

The picture will play at the Best theatre tomorrow, Tuesday.

COAL MAY BE SCARCE

Serious Danger Exists of Fuel Shortage Next Winter.

Public Delays Purchases Owing to Policy of Being Urged to Use Cheaper Grades.

Washington, May 13.—Official circles here admit that the nation is headed toward a worse coal famine next winter than it experienced the last one.

Mine reports show an actual falling off in production that will mean a serious shortage by December. Despite figures from the federal railway administration that more coal is being hauled now than a year ago less fuel is being mined.

Fuel administration officials say lack of coal cars is responsible. Mine operators say the same thing. The reply of the railway administration is that every request for cars is being met.

In part both of these contentions seem to be true. But there is a third reason which probably is the most important. In many sections there is no market for coal. The administration is trying to get the public to use a lower grade of coal than it has been accustomed to with the result it is holding back in the hope of a change in policy later.

Thus instead of stimulating production the federal policy is curbing it.

USING SMALL FORCES

Allies Employing Only Enough Men to Hold Their Line.

Will Hold American Army in Reserve Until It Becomes a Complete and Powerful Force.

Ottawa, May 13.—A cable summary of operations on the western front received here from the war committee of the British cabinet says the Allies are so confident of their ability to repel any advance the Germans may attempt that it has been decided not to use the American army until it becomes a complete and powerful force.

Choose to Wait for Complete Army.

"The position now is," said the summary, "that the Germans, determined to concentrate every available unit on one enormous offensive, are draining their country dry to force a decision before it is too late.

"The Allies are so confident that, having been given the choice of a small immediate American army for defense, or waiting till they are reinforced by a complete, powerful, self-supporting American army, they have chosen the latter.

"To the sledge hammer uses of masses of men by the enemy, the Allies are opposing the strategy of meeting the blow with the smallest force capable of standing up to the shock, while keeping the strongest reserve possible."

Deny Colonel Roosevelt's Accusations of Discrimination.

Mr. Creel denied Colonel Roosevelt's statement that he had attacked Collier's Weekly, the Metropolitan Magazine and the New York Tribune.

DISPATCH WANT ADS PAY

To the Citizens of Brainerd

Brainerd, Minnesota, May 13, 1918

In our first article to you we directed your attention to some of the reasons why it is imperative for this Company to secure a temporary increase in its gas rates if it is to continue operating and serving you efficiently.

These increased costs of production, operation and maintenance have affected us since the commencement of the war, and while many other companies throughout the country increased their rates during the year 1917, we have made every effort to avoid such action. In fact we have operated at a very substantial loss every since the installation of our plant in Brainerd. Some of these losses were contemplated and expected and would have been sustained had the war not intervened. For these we ask no relief. The increase pending 35c per one thousand cubic feet of gas used will not cover one-half of our losses, but will assist us in absorbing the increased costs created by conditions brought about by the present world war.

By reason of these unprecedented conditions and the consequent losses we are forced to ask for an increase in our rates.

The proposed increase is a very small matter for each individual consumer, but on it depends the stability of one of your necessary industries.

The situation is so serious through the whole country that President Wilson has made a personal appeal to municipalities and courts to "respond promptly to the necessities of the situation."

It is vitally important to our national interest that fuel be conserved. Our gas plant centralizes fuel supply for cooking purposes in Brainerd, and operates at a minimum waste. By using gas you are conserving fuel. We hope to extend our mains in Brainerd this year to serve many more of you. This cannot be done, however, unless we receive your cooperation.

We have the utmost faith in Brainerd and in its people. Our interests are mutual and inseparable and your cooperation will benefit all of us. We respectfully, but most urgently, request each one of you to show your good Will toward us and your loyalty to Brainerd by telling your alderman that you are in favor of this increase.

Very truly yours,

Brainerd Gas and Electric Company

MUST SAVE FRUIT CROP

Every effort must be made to save and preserve the fruit crop which forms a most important item of our food supply.

Berries and other fruits will soon be abundant in this state marking the commencement of the summer canning and preserving season.

The sugar outlook, however, is such that regular and normal supplies to care for the usual heavy summer demand, as well as the canning requirements, cannot be expected, owing principally to the lack of sufficient vessels and transportation facilities to bring the raw product into this country.

The food administration is much concerned over the problem of how to provide sugar for the home canning needs. To help meet the situation it is now ordered:

First—After May 15th, all dealers are forbidden to sell sugar to any manufacturer excepting bakers and public eating houses except on surrender of certificate. Manufacturers must obtain certificates from administrator who will issue them on basis of sworn statements showing last year's use of sugar. Important essentials are ice cream, canned fruit, vegetables, milk, meat, medicines. Manufacturers of these products may receive requirements. Other manufacturers are entitled to 80% of last year's use.

Second—If available, retailers may purchase and carry in stock sufficient sugar to cover their seasonal requirements for full 30 days.

Third—For canning purposes only retailers may sell to consumers 25 pounds of sugar at one time. The consumer must sign a certificate to get this sugar and is not expected to get more until the first 25 pounds is used. Additional lots of 25 pounds may be secured as needed by signing each time a certificate. Retailer must send certificate to his county food administrator.

It is hoped and believed that by thus carefully supplying the needs as they arise that all sugar needed for canning and preserving may be supplied.

Fourth—For general household consumption, retailers are required to observe the same careful and limited distribution of sugar. That is, to sell at one time no more than 5 pounds per customer in town and no more than 10 pounds per customer in the country. No family should use for general household purposes (not including canning and preserving) more than 3 pounds per person per month.

Fifth—Merchants are requested to sell sugar to regular customers only.

THE WHEAT SITUATION

The wheat situation is the most serious in the food supply of the allied world.

Our harvest was less than estimated; needs of the allies are greater than were calculated, losses by sea and by battle have been heavier than were anticipated; less comes from the Argentine than had been hoped; tender demands on shipping space restrict ships more than ever to the shortest haul and the tightest bulk.

We have fallen behind in our program. Because corn and oats were so tardy in coming to market, we have not been able to ship as much as we should, we have eaten further into our stock of wheat than we would.

Corn cannot be shipped now. We have sent it as fast as we could and we will again. But during the next two months, the season of germination, it will not do to ship corn—there is too much spoilage in shipment.

There is no margin anywhere. The allies have wheat today but their stocks are down to the danger point. We dare not let anything stop the flow of wheat overseas. That would be disaster greater than defeat of an army.

We must send wheat—and more wheat—and more. To redeem our obligation we must cut down by half our own consumption of wheat.

Don't be afraid that by eating more potatoes you will go over the top in weight. If you do add another pound in weight by helping the government win the war you can carry the burden better than the Sammies and allies who are fighting your battle in France can go without wheat. "The wheat is needed in the front line trenches 'Over There,' let the potato serve as the home guard 'Over Here.'"

In three months the population of the state prison at Stillwater has fallen off from 940 to 881. Is this due to the high cost of living at that institution?

The Walker Pilot has set one guessing by asking "Is every fisherman a liar, or do only Hars fish."

DRIVE GERMAN FROM HILL 44

French Troops Capture Important Section of High Ground North of Kemmel Hill.

ATTACK IS REPULSED

After Losing Their Front Line Positions on Southern Battle Front Poilus Recover Ground by Brilliant Counter Attack.

With the British Army in France, May 13.—In a strong attack the French have captured an important section of high ground near the Vyverbeek river, north of Kemmel.

Both Hill 44 and Goddezone farm, which lie between La Clytte and Vierstraat, were stormed and occupied, thereby giving the French positions which had been a bone of contention for many days.

The Germans also received a knock on the Southern battle front where they made a drive in an attempt to capture defenses on the elevation south of Maillu-Raineval. Here the enemy succeeded after hard fighting in obtaining a footing in the French front line at one place but their success was short-lived for a prompt counter assault drove them out, and, besides their dead, they left more than 100 prisoners in the hands of the defenders.

Bitter Fight Lasts Day.

The battle for Hill 44 was the outcome of the German attack May 8. When the Germans assaulted, the Allies were holding the elevation. Bitter fighting ensued all day long and the Germans in the course of time secured possession of the hill. The British almost immediately organized a counter attack and forced the enemy out.

The next day the Germans again drove forward. They made such a heavy assault that they again captured the hill, which they held until yesterday.

No other infantry action of importance has occurred in the last 24 hours.

Prisoners recently captured declare that the German losses in their attack between Voormezele and La Clytte May 8 were heavy.

Considerable disorganization was caused behind the German lines because the gas from their gas shells blew back over their territory and forced them to don masks.

Inactive in Flanders and Picardy.

The German armies in Flanders and Picardy are still inactive. Except for their artillery winge, which are carrying out bombardments on various sectors, they are doing little work anywhere.

Meanwhile the British and French armies are letting no opportunity pass to peek at the Germans at points where the enemy front is considered particularly vulnerable.

To John Schmitz, lot 1, block 6, East Side Addition. Last year he bought lot 2 adjoining, built a home and takes another lot to increase his already large garden. As he uses the unimproved street as well as his own lots he says the potatoes raised on the street and alley taste just as good as the others.

To John Palling, lots 11 and 12, block 11, East Side Addition, consideration $225. Mr. Palling buys for a home.

Amos Hykes, lots 5 and 6, block 8, East Side Addition. Mr. Hykes bought all of block 1 two years ago. Has sold all but two and had four homes built on his block.

Frank Jordan lots 6 and 7, block 3, Chippewa Addition. Consideration $175. Mr. Jordan bought two lots adjoining these two years ago and built a home. Having paid for these he now takes these lots to increase his garden and is also building a cement block cellar and an addition to his home.

To John Verkenne lots 7, 8, 9 and 10, block 8, Chippewa Addition, with a small home. Consideration $400.

To John Evans lots 13 and 14, block 8, Chippewa Addition. Consideration $100. These for additional garden.

These sales show a growing tendency towards getting large space for gardens, build small unfinished houses to start with and increase and improve their holdings, comforts and conveniences by their own work outside of regular working hours when otherwise they would be idle. Small houses and large gardens seem to be the slogan now.

CORP. LOWERY MAY BE OFFICER

Called to Officers Training Camp at Camp Grant, Ill., by Telegram This Morning

CHARGE OF RECRUITING HERE

In 14 Months He Gained 312 Recruits for the Army—Very Popular Young Man

Corporal Raymond Lowery, for fourteen months stationed at Brainerd in the army recruiting office, has been ordered to attend the fourth officers' training camp at Camp Grant, Illinois.

In his service at Brainerd Corporal Lowery gained 312 men for the army. He was very popular and assisted at many patriotic rallies, school programs and home talent plays and stimulated patriotism in his district.

His offices were in the federal building. His many friends in the district regret to see him leave Brainerd and all are assured he will make good at the camp and win a commission. He has one of the prime essentials of an officer, the ability to handle men and to get out of them the best that is in them.

Corporal Lowery leaves tonight on the midnight train and a large crowd of friends will be at the depot to bid him goodbye.

PERIODICALS MISSING

Unknown Parties Removing Magazines and Papers From Chamber of Commerce

An annoying custom of unknown parties in removing magazines and periodicals as well as Sunday papers from the reading room of the Chamber of Commerce, has been called to the attention of the house and social committee and those who are guilty of this breach of the house rules are respectfully urged to discontinue the custom.

The Chamber of Commerce reading room is much enjoyed and utilized by the members and visitors and is one of the best equipped reading tables in the city. Periodicals and papers cost money and the reading room table has been kept up at considerable expense. The habit of removing publications from the table seems to have been growing of late and magazines are no more than left there a day or two before they suddenly and mysteriously disappear. The attention of those who use the room is called to the fact that these are for the benefit of members and their friends and that the rules are strict in that they must not be removed from the room.

The house and social committee requests that this rule be observed to the letter in the future.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

Isn't it nice to have your own home where you can entertain your loving friends surrounded by all that is so attractive in nature, especially among the evergreens, and all that goes to make an attractive, lovable home. The economic feature, important to it, is secondary in the minds of many cultured people to the aesthetic features that can be enjoyed only in one's own home. It is my business and pleasure to help along this line.

HEAVY FROST IN BRAINERD SECTION

Cold weather Saturday terminated Sunday night in 22 above temperature and the frost did damage to many early war gardens.

Three miles east of Brainerd the apple and plum orchard of Lawrence McCulloch, was badly damaged. Travelers from Duluth report seeing ice on ponds all the way to Brainerd.

Farmers report that strawberries in bloom were nipped by the frost. June berries and blueberries were damaged.

IN RECRUITING SERVICE

Johnson's Pharmacy, of Brainerd, is among the 139 Minnesota druggists who have volunteered for special war duty as recruiting agents for the new American Merchant Marine, according to a statement issued today at the headquarters of the United States Shipping Board Recruiting Service.

These druggists represent the cities and larger towns of the entire state, from Jackson to St. Vincent. Each will conduct an enrolling station in his store, where American citizens, 21 to 30, inexperienced in seagoing, may put their names to applications for training as sailors, firemen, coal-passers, cooks and messmen on ships of a training squadron maintained by the shipping board for preparing crews to serve on the new cargo fleets of the American Merchant Marine.

RED CROSS BENEFIT

$22.30 From Dance and Basket Social at Maple Grove on Thursday

The sum of $22.30 was realized for the Red Cross from a dance and basket social held at the school house in Maple Grove township in district number 23 Thursday evening and a pleasant time was enjoyed by a large number of people attending.

This event was held under the auspices of the War Savings Society of that locality of which W. M. Richards is president. The basket supper was held in the school house and the dance at Wick's creamery near by.

The receipts were turned over to the Brainerd Chapter, A. R. C., by Mr. Richards, who stated that it was the wish of the War Savings society that it be donated for Red Cross work.

BRAINERD'S ODEST STORIES OF TODAY

If you've taken off the heavy ones and are wearing the light ones, better switch back to the old kind.

Ironton did not take kindly to the idea of some Brainerd fans to call the game at the 4 to 4 stage in the ninth around 6 o'clock Sunday. So play was resumed in the tenth.

A stamp vending machine giving full value in stamps has been victimized by slug shooters. The Ransford cigar stand has suffered from such actions and the hope is expressed that the slug practice will be discontinued.

CLOSING HOURS PATRIOTIC DAYS

Inasmuch as the mayor of our city has set the precedent in calling on all business houses and offices to close for a limited period on the days when the Crow Wing county contingents are leaving for the training camps, we feel that those leaving in the future should be shown the same honor and respect as those who have left in the past, as some method should be taken to let the boys know that we are aware of an appreciate the sacrifice they are making for their country.

Therefore, the Business Men's association respectfully request all business houses and offices to decorate and close their several places of business at 11:30 A. M. and re-open after the train leaves on which the contingent is going. This of course is to apply when the boys are leaving on the noon trains as heretofore.

Some comment has been made on the plan of closing at 11:30, but this hour is suggested in order to give every one the opportunity to get their noon day lunch and be ready to return to business after the train leaves and also to give the ladies the same opportunity as the men to show their respect and this could not be done if business places did not close until 12 o'clock.

Closing at 11:30 will work no hardship on those coming from the north range and from the M. & I. to do their shopping, as those trains now arrive at about 11 o'clock instead of 12 as formerly.

The Brainerd Business Men's Association.

10 INNING GAME IS PLAYED AT IRONTON

error of Benda and was later caught on a throw of Cook to Sheffield, covering second. McGarry flew out to Sheffield in center. J. Putnam was hit by the pitcher, and made third on a loose play. Wolf reached first on a drive through Cook's territory. Two scores rattled across the plate as F. Putnam made first on an error of Gustafson. Smith flew out to Bush. Two runs, not a hit and a crop of errors for Brainerd.

Ironton was held well in hand for four innings following. In the sixth Wolf got a two-bagger and scored as F. Putnam was run down between first and second base. In the eighth Jennings scored and tied the game, 4 to 4.

In the tenth Jennings got a two-bagger, Howard a single and Jennings rolled the winning run across the plate, 5 to 4, with none out.

Brainerd Scores

Strikeouts, four of them, and fast fielding shut off Brainerd hopes for scoring in the first three innings.

In the fourth Benda scored. He made first on an error of Second Baseman F. Putnam and was brought in on Gustafson's single.

Brainerd stock loomed well to the front in the sixth when two runs were netted and the score stood 3 to 3. Cook was passed. Benda singled. Stallman made first on an error of First Baseman Grinstead. Cook and Benda scored.

In the seventh Bush singled and scored as Cook purposely led off first and was run down between first and second, thus duplicating the Ironton stunt when F. Putnam was chased down. That was the end of the run getting.

The score by innings:
Brainerd 000 121 000 0-4
Ironton 200 001 010 1-5

None out when winning run was made.

"PAN SIFTINGS"

Pan Auto Publicity to Push "Ten Thousand Lakes Minnesota"

An offer has been made to the "Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota Association" to reach more than a half million readers all over America through "Pan Siftings," the house organ of the Pan Motor Company of St. Cloud, to interest them in the wonderful lake and recreation center of the nation—Minnesota.

The Pan Motor company is peculiarly interested in the summer recreation opportunities Minnesota offers, as it is incorporating two features of special appeal to the summer tourist in the 1919 Pan car.

One is the sleeping-car body of the Pan car. By releasing levers the front seat drops back and makes a full size bed—roomy enough for a comfortable night's rest at lake shore or in forest. Each car also is equipped with the Pandolfo compartment tank, which contains compartments for food and drinking water. A refrigeration system makes it possible to keep several days' supplies of food and water on hand. The tank also contains compartments for excess supplies of oil and gasoline and a place for tools.

MAURICE IS RETIRED

Army Council Punishes Distinguished British General.

Breach of Regulations Ends Career of Former Director of Military Operations.

London, May 13.—The army council has retired Gen. F. B. Maurice, former director of military operations, it is officially announced.

The council considered Maurice's explanation of the breach of discipline he committed by writing the letter attacking the veracity of Premier Lloyd George and Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law and decided that he should be placed at once on retired pay.

The army council's action ended the public career of the man who has created more confusion in British military and official circles in the last few weeks than any other individual since the start of the war.

Major General Maurice, as director of military operations, was the official spokesman for the British army and the natural intermediary between the army and the war cabinet.

Shortly after the appointment of General Foch as commander-in-chief of the Allied armies, Maurice returned from a visit to British headquarters in France and gave out his now famous "Where is Blucher?" interview. In this he drew a parallel between the British armies in the present drive and the British at Waterloo, when the fate of the duke of Wellington's forces hung on the arrival of the Prussian leader, General Blucher. The "Blucher" in this case plainly was Foch and Maurice's remarks generally were accepted as an insult not only to Foch, but to the Versailles war council.

Facts About the American Red Cross

Did you know that—

It has established and is operating twenty dispensaries in the American Army Zone in France to care for the needy families there and to improve health conditions in that section ready for our troops?

It is housing and feeding thousands of children in the War Zone to keep them away from the danger of gas and shell fire?

It has divided the entire War Zone into six main districts, with Red Cross workers at each point to distribute cooking utensils, agricultural implements, beds, bedding, food and clothing?

It provides builders and ready-to-put-up buildings to house the homeless in the devastated regions, often before the walls of the destroyed homes have cooled?

It is bringing over two hundred tons of supplies every day into Paris, from which one hundred and twenty-five tons are reshipped to branch warehouses over France?

It is providing an artificial limb factory outside of Paris, in addition to special plants for the making of splints?

What will you give to keep this Hand of Mercy at its work?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country. It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.
